Reply of Government.—This will be disposed of soon.

Subject No. 481
Enjoyment of Nagadiyat Bhatamanyam by the Mandya Agraharies.

Summary of discussion.—The Mandya Agraharies were enjoying nagadiyat Bhatamanya hereditarily. Latterly however, such enjoyment has been restricted to the lifetime of the Barawardars. This is opposed to His late Highness the Maharaja's Sannad which provides for enjoyment in perpetual succession. Effect should be given to the terms of the sannad.

Reply of Government.—Each case will be dealt with on its own merits. The matter is, therefore, one for individual complaint.

Subject No. 482.
Removal of the School building at Malavalli to another locality.

Summary of discussion.—The school is now held in an inconvenient locality. The rent too is heavy being Rs. 20-8-0 a month. The construction of a suitable building on Government land between the Petta and the Fort would be a great convenience to all concerned and may be ordered to be soon undertaken.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Inspector General of Education for needful action.

Subject No. 483
Investment of the Malavalli Amildar with 2nd Class Magisterial powers.

Summary of discussion.—The Amildar of Malavalli may be invested with the powers of a 2nd Class Magistrate so as to obviate the necessity of parties and witnesses concerned in 2nd Class cases having to go to French Rocks which is some 40 miles from Malavalli.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 484
Removal of the Munsiff's Court at Seringapatam to Mandya.

Summary of discussion.—The Seringapatam Munsiff's Court may be removed to Mandya which is more centrally situated, and the system of circuit Courts revived.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Establishment of Anna Chattram at Hampapura.

Summary of discussion.—For the benefit of people travelling from Mysore to Heggaddevankote, Manantoddy, Tellicherry and other places, the establishment of an Anna Chattram at Hampapur is desirable.

Reply of Government.—This is not possible.
